ELEMENTARY INSTRUCTIONAL SUPPORT

A Systematic Search for Success

"The district of choice"

Instructional Support Is...

- An early intervention process which provides assistance for elementary students experiencing academic and/or behavioral difficulties.
- A support system encouraging parental involvement to benefit the child at home and at school.

The Process...

The I.S.T. process begins after a teacher or a parent requests assistance .

- A team meeting is conducted.
- The team uses a problem solving method to develop an action plan with specific interventions.
- The student's progress is monitored for at least 30 school days.
- A progress review meeting is held to determine the success of the interventions.

The progress review results in one of the following...

- Intervention strategies have been successful and the I.S.T. process is complete.
- Intervention strategies are being continued; progress of student is monitored.
- Intervention strategies are being redesigned.
- A student is referred to a multidisciplinary team for further evaluation.
